

Resonance Audiology and Hearing Aid Center

PATIENT GUIDE

Resonance Audiology and Hearing Aid Center wants you to be aware of the Federal Government rules and regulations that are in place to protect your health information. Resonance Audiology and Hearing Aid Center is committed to helping you understand these rules and regulation so that we can most effectively treat you.

Resonance Audiology and Hearing Aid Center provides documents that tell you how information that may identify you and that relates to your audiological/health care will be used. Some of these documents must be signed by you to show you received and understand them and to enable the highest level of care by Resonance Audiology and Hearing Aid Center.

This pamphlet provides an overview of the documents you will receive from Resonance Audiology and Hearing Aid Center.

Notice of Privacy Practices

The Notice of Privacy Practices is a lengthy document that goes into detail to fully inform you about how your health information is used. In a nutshell, the Notice of Privacy Practices covers the following topics:

- How Resonance Audiology and Hearing Aid Center manages and protects your health information.
- How you can restrict certain uses and disclosures of your protected health information
- Your rights in requesting information about your protected health information; and
- Contact information if you have any questions or concerns regarding your protected health information.
- Resonance Audiology and Hearing Aid Center requests that you sign an acknowledgement that you received the Notice of Privacy Practices.

Authorization to Use and Disclosure

To assist Resonance Audiology and Hearing Aid Center in providing the best care possible and to communicate with those close to you and other health professionals that may be treating you, Resonance Audiology and Hearing Aid Center provides you a form to let us know who we can share your health information with.
